

Novgorodica 2010
Recent Discussions on Novgorod “Veche”: An Interdisciplinary Dialog
EUSP, Conference Hall
September, 20

10:00–10:15 Introductory Address

10:15–11:45 Panel One: History

Chair — Jonas Granberg (Goteborg University)

- Pavel Lukin (Institute for Russian History, Russian Academy of Sciences):
Novgorod Veche in the XIV Century in the Hansa Sources
- Ekaterina Skvairs (Moscow State University): Hansa Charters As A
Language Source on the History of Novgorod the Great

Discussant: Mikhail Krom (EUSP)

12:15–13:45 Panel Two: Philology

Chair — Simon Franklin (Cambridge University)

- Tatyana Vilkul (Institute of History of Ukraine, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine): The Concept “Veche” in Old Bulgarian and Old Russian Sources
- Alexei Gippius (Russian State University for the Humanities): On the Administrative Organization and Social Topography of the Medieval
Novgorod (according to the written sources)

Discussant: Antoaneta Granberg (Goteborg University)

14:30–16:00 Panel Three: Archeology

Chair — Edward Keenan (Harvard University)

- Sergey Troyanovsky (Novgorod Branch of Saint-Petersburg Institute of History, Russian Academy of Sciences): Archeological Description and Social Topography of Sophia Side of Novgorod in X-XV Centuries: Formation,

Dynamics and Connection with Political History

- Denis Pezhemsky (Novgorod Center “Nasledie”): Archeological Aspect of “Veche” Squares

Дискуссант: Adrian Selin (Historic Architectural and Archeological Reserve Museum Staraya Ladoga)

16:30–18:30 Panel Four: Republican Theory

Chair — Oleg Kharkhordin (EUSP)

- Olga Sevastyanova (SLOVO, Aberdeen): Novgorod Veche: A Deviation from Republican Theory
- Ludwig Steindorff (University of Kiel): Can Novgorod Be Regarded As A Commune?
- Eve Levin (University of Kansas): Women in the Political Life of Medieval Novgorod: A Reappraisal.

Discussant: Viktor Zhivov (University of California, Berkeley/Institute of Russian Language, Russian Academy of Sciences)

18:30–19:00 General Discussion

Working languages: Russian, English