

St-Petersburg Arendt Annual Conference

Building The Common Human World: Hannah Arendt and Public Action

April, 24-25, St Petersburg

April, 24

European University at St Petersburg,
3, Gagarinskaya st.

14.30 Registration, welcome-coffee

15.00 Opening, Greetings

Oleg Kharkhordin, European University

Artemy Magun, European University/Faculty of Liberal Arts and Sciences, SPbU

15.30-18.00

Roger Bercowitz, Bard College. The Worldliness of Virtual Worlds

Oleg Kharkhordin, European University. Implications of Arendt's Republicanism for the Transformation of Russian Common-ism

Artemy Magun, European University/Faculty of Liberal Arts and Sciences, SPbU What is Public Sphere? Between Parliament and Carnival.

18.00-18.30 Coffee break

18.30-20.30

Samantha Hill, Bard College. The Work of our Hands: Hannah Arendt, Homo Faber, & Poiesis

Thomas Schestag, Brown University. Tacit Consent and Civil Disobedience

20.30 Reception

April, 25

Faculty of Liberal Arts and Sciences, SPbU
58-60, Galernaya st.

12.30-14.00 Student session – in Russian

Moderators: Samantha Hill, Bard College and Denis Skopin, Faculty of Liberal Arts and Sciences, SPbU

Anastasia Katchalova, Faculty of Liberal Arts and Sciences, SPbU

Anna Madera, Faculty of Liberal Arts and Sciences, SPbU

Elizaveta Trofimova, Faculty of Liberal Arts and Sciences, SPbU

14.00-15.00 Lunch

15.00-17.00

Alexander Fillipov, National Research University Higher School of Economics.

Hannah Arendt and Thomas Hobbes: Two Perspectives on Political Theology – in Russian

Viktor Kaploun, Faculty of Liberal Arts and Sciences, SPbU / National Research University Higher School of Economics. (TBA) – in Russian

17.00-17.30 Coffee Break

17.30-20.00

Alexei Grinbaum, LARSIM laboratory, CEA-Saclay "The Old-New Meaning of Researcher's Responsibility»

Cecilia Sjöholm, Södertörn University. Speech in the Belly; the Tone of Critical Thought.

Thomas Wild, Bard College. Hannah Arendt - "From the Perspective of the World"